THE CASCADES.

A RAG.

SCOTT JOPLIN.

Composer of "Maple Leaf Rag."

Tempo di Marcia.

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time. It begins with a mf (mezzo-forte) dynamic. The first system shows a simple melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The second system features a more complex melody with eighth notes and a steady bass line. The third system includes a section marked 'L.H.' (Left Hand) with a complex, cascading figure. The fourth system continues the cascading figure in the right hand. The fifth system shows a final section with a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, ending with a double bar line.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems of staves. Each system has a treble and a bass staff. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like p-f. The piece concludes with a Fine marking and a repeat sign.

The first system begins with a p-f marking. The second system continues the melody. The third system also features a p-f marking. The fourth system shows the progression of the piece. The fifth system includes a first ending (1.) and a second ending (2.) leading to the Fine marking.

RAGTIME THAT IS DIFFERENT.

MAPLE LEAF RAG.

"Maple Leaf Rag" marks an era in music composition. It has thrilled and attracted those who opposed ragtime. It is played by the culture of all nations and in the drawing rooms and homes of good taste. No piano can do without Maple Leaf.
